NEIGHBOURWISE AI

Neighborhood Intelligence Report

Mission Hill

Boston, Massachusetts

65.8

out of 100

▲ Strength: Schools

▼ Weakness: Restaurants

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Nestled in the heart of Boston, Massachusetts, Mission Hill is a vibrant and diverse neighborhood that offers a unique blend of urban living and community charm. With a master score of 65.8 out of 100, it's our top pick for those seeking a balanced lifestyle. The area is particularly renowned for its excellent schools, scoring an impressive 86.0, making it an ideal choice for families and students alike. However, Mission Hill's true character lies in its rich history, its mix of residential and commercial spaces, and its welcoming atmosphere that fosters a strong sense of community.

Mission Hill is best suited for individuals who value convenience and quality of life. With safety, transit, housing, and healthcare scores all above 50, it provides a reliable foundation for daily life. The neighborhood's transit score of 73.6 means getting around Boston is a breeze, whether you're commuting to work or exploring the city's many attractions. The ample grocery options, scoring 73.5, ensure that your everyday needs are well catered to. However, with a university score of 45.6, it may not be the first choice for those seeking a bustling college town atmosphere.

The key trade-off in Mission Hill is its relatively lower score in restaurants and universities. While there are dining options available, the neighborhood's score of 42.8 in restaurants suggests that foodies might need to venture further afield for a wider variety of culinary experiences. Similarly, despite its proximity to several esteemed institutions, the university score indicates that the neighborhood isn't as deeply integrated with student life as some other areas in Boston. Yet, with its top-notch schools, solid safety record, and convenient transit options, Mission Hill remains a standout choice for families and professionals seeking a balanced, community-oriented lifestyle in Boston, Massachusetts.

DOMAIN SCORECARD

| DOMAIN | SCORE | GRADE |
|---|---|---|
| Safety | 56.9 | Good |
| Transit | 73.6 | Good |
| Housing | 74.2 | Affordable |
| Grocery | 73.5 | Well Stocked |
| Healthcare | 71.7 | Good |
| Schools | 86.0 | Excellent |
| Restaurants | 42.8 | Moderate |

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Universities | 45.6 | Moderate |
| Bluebikes | 50.8 | Good |

VISUAL ANALYSIS

Domain Radar

Each spoke represents one of the 9 scored domains (0–100).

All Domain Scores

Color-coded by domain · Higher = stronger performance.

COMPARISON & TRENDS

Neighborhood Comparison

Blue bar = this neighborhood · vs 5 nearest by master score.

Crime Trend & Forecast

Blue = actual · Orange dashed = SARIMAX forecast + CI band.

Trend: Increasing · Model MAPE: 12.1% · Reliability: HIGH

In Mission Hill, Boston/Cambridge, recent crime rates have seen a slight uptick, averaging 100 incidents over the past three months, compared to 91 in the same period last year. However, our forecast for April 2026 predicts a decrease to approximately 92 incidents. Notably, 73.7% of crimes occur within 16 high-density clusters, indicating that safety measures could be effectively focused in these areas.

DOMAIN ANALYSIS

● Safety

In Mission Hill, a neighborhood within Boston, Massachusetts, the safety score is a relatively good 56.9 out of 100, despite a high density of incidents at 6776.36 per square mile. The most common police service call is for sick assistance; however, the most prevalent actual crime type is property crime, accounting for 18.11% of all incidents. There has been a slight increase of 4.02% in incidents year over year, with violent crime remaining low at 0.67% of all incidents.

● Transit

Mission Hill, a neighborhood in Boston, boasts a good transit score of 73.6 out of 100. It is served by the Orange Line and Green Line E of the rapid transit system, with key stops including Forest Hills Station, Back Bay Station, and Ruggles Station. The area is also connected by numerous bus routes such as City Point - Copley Square, Dedham Mall or Stimson Street - Forest Hills Station, and Mattapan Station - Ruggles Station, totaling to 32 stops, with 5 rapid transit stops and 27 bus stops. Notably, 87.5% of these stops are wheelchair accessible.

Housing

Mission Hill, Boston offers a range of housing options at relatively affordable prices, with a housing score of 74.2 out of 100, earning it a grade of 'affordable'. The neighborhood features a mix of property types including single-family homes, multi-family houses, and apartment complexes, providing options for both renters and buyers. Despite its urban setting, one can expect reasonable housing costs compared to other areas in Boston, making it an attractive choice for those seeking affordability and variety in their housing options.

Grocery

In Mission Hill, Boston, residents have relatively good access to grocery stores, with a grocery score of 73.5 out of 100, indicating a well-stocked area. The risk of it being a food desert is low due to the adequate availability of stores, and daily convenience is enhanced by the proximity of these grocery options.

Healthcare

Mission Hill, Boston, Massachusetts, has a good healthcare score of 71.7 out of 100, indicating a relatively high level of access to healthcare facilities. The neighborhood is home to several hospitals and clinics, providing residents with ample options for medical care, and the quality of access to these facilities is considered satisfactory.

Schools

Mission Hill in Boston, Massachusetts, is home to a diverse range of both public and private schools, catering to students from elementary to high school levels. The area's schools are highly rated, with an average score of 86.0 out of 100, indicating excellent educational quality, and offering a robust curriculum that fosters academic growth and development for all students.

Restaurants

Mission Hill, a neighborhood nestled within Boston, Massachusetts, offers a moderate restaurant scene with a density of 460 eateries per square mile, totaling 253 establishments. The cuisine diversity spans across four categories, with a slight lean towards budget and mid-range pricing. The area's restaurants score an average rating of 3.5 out of 5, with 32.0% classified as high quality. Notably, 95.7% of these restaurants offer delivery services.

Universities

Mission Hill, a neighborhood nestled within Boston, Massachusetts, offers moderate access to education with a score of 45.6 out of 100. The area is home to a single institution, the Wentworth Institute of Technology, which is a technical college providing bachelor's degree programs and above. Notably, this institution also offers campus housing for its students. However, there are no research institutions offering doctorate degrees in Mission Hill.

Bluebikes

Bluebikes in Mission Hill, Boston, offers a good bikeshare experience with a score of 50.8 out of 100, providing ample station availability for users to easily access and return bikes. The dock capacity is well-managed, ensuring a balance between available bikes and empty docks, and the system's convenience is enhanced by its strategic placement in the neighborhood, making cycling a viable option for both commuters and casual riders.

LIFESTYLE & CHARACTER

Mission Hill, a vibrant neighborhood in Boston, Massachusetts, is deeply committed to fostering a healthy lifestyle for its residents. The community works in tandem with Boston's Collaborative and the Quality Streets Cabinet to promote walking, biking, and the use of public transit, making the streets safer and more accessible for everyone. The neighborhood's focus on active living is particularly evident in its support for childcare programs that emphasize nutrition and physical activity for children aged 0 to 5. This commitment extends to those who have historically been denied opportunities to build wealth and maintain health, ensuring that everyone in Mission Hill has the chance to live a healthy, active life.

What sets Mission Hill apart is its dedication to improving access to essential health services and nutritious food. For residents with heart disease and diabetes, early detection and ongoing management with a healthcare team can be a matter of life and death. The neighborhood strives to expand disease screening and management services, recognizing that access to these resources is crucial for preventing obesity and hypertension, and reducing cardiometabolic risks. However, many residents still have limited access to medical screenings and services. To address this, Mission Hill collaborates with community partners to improve access to affordable, culturally relevant, and unprocessed or minimally processed food. After all, food is not just essential for survival, but also for maintaining good health and preventing disease.

WHO SHOULD LIVE HERE?

1. The neighborhood of Mission Hill in Boston, Massachusetts, seems to be most suitable for families. This is primarily due to the high score in the 'Schools' category (86.0), indicating excellent educational institutions in the area. The 'Safety' score of 56.9, while not exceptionally high, is also within an acceptable range for families.

2. On the other hand, students and young professionals might want to consider other neighborhoods. Despite the decent 'Transit' and 'Housing' scores, the low scores in 'Universities' (45.6), 'Restaurants' (42.8), and 'Bluebikes' (50.8) suggest that the area may lack the vibrant, diverse, and convenient lifestyle often preferred by these demographics.

Data: Analyze Boston API · Cambridge Open Data · FBI Crime Data Explorer · MBTA GTFS · Snowflake Cortex · NeighbourWise RAG · Scores normalized 0–100 across 51 neighborhoods · Generated April 17, 2026 · DAMG7374